Introduction to Isaiah 6:1-13: R.C. Sproul on “The Importance of Holiness”

The first time I heard R. C. Sproul teach was several decades ago. I can't recall the exact date, but I do remember his teaching like it was yesterday...

He began in Isaiah 6, a passage I knew well. I had preached on it myself more than once. But after hearing R. C.'s powerful description of the majesty and magnificence of “the Lord sitting upon a throne, high and lifted up” (Isaiah 6:1), I never looked at that passage the same way again. It was as if R. C. had taken us into the very throne room of heaven to see a glimpse of God's holiness with our own eyes.

Next Time

I plan to recap some of the major ideas that we heard R.C. Sproul talk about in Isaiah 1:1-4 and then I plan to cover the remainder of the Isaiah 6:1-13 which talks about Isaiah's Commission.

Class Discussion Time

*Class Discussion Time

- Do you think Christians today are sometimes too casual in the way they approach God?
- What about:
 - Let us then with confidence draw near to the throne of grace (Heb 4:16)
 - Brothers, since we have confidence to enter the holy places by the blood of Jesus... (Heb 10:19)
- Is there a balance to be had here?
